Gene D. BLOCK 毕杰恩
Chancellor, UCLA
Gene Block became Chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees the university’s three-part mission of education, research and service. He has defined academic excellence, civic engagement, diversity, and financial security as top priorities for his administration. An expert in neuroscience, Dr. Block’s current research focuses on the effects of aging in the nervous system and how it impacts biological timing in mammals, including humans. He holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. Chancellor Block holds a bachelor’s degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master’s and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. Before coming to UCLA, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia.

Hongbin CAI 蔡洪滨
Dean, Professor of Applied Economics, Guanghua School of Management, Peking University
Hongbin Cai is currently professor in economics and dean of Guanghua School of Management, Peking University. He taught at UCLA before moving back to Peking University. Professor Cai’s research interests include game theory, Chinese economy, industrial organization and corporate finance, and he has published many academic papers in top international journals in economics and finance. He is a National Chang Jiang Scholar (awarded by Ministry of Education of China) and a National Outstanding Young Researcher (awarded by National Science Foundation of China). He is elected as a fellow and a council member of the Econometric Society. Professor Cai is a member of the National People’s Congress, and a member of the Central Committee of China Democratic League and vice chairman of its Committee of Economic Affairs.

LIU Chi 刘驰
Partner, Dacheng Law Offices
Mr. Liu is a sports and entertainment lawyer and arbitrator in Beijing. He received his second LL.M. degree at UCLA in 2012 with specialization in entertainment and media law, 25 years after he received his first at Temple University. Mr. Liu recently assisted Dacheng in its combination negotiation with Dentons to become the largest law firm in the world with over 6,600 lawyers, in more than 125 offices, in 50 plus countries and regions.
James Ding 丁健
General Partner, GSR Venture, LLP.
James Ding is the general partner of GSR Ventures, an early stage venture fund focus on technology, media and telecom investment in China. James Ding co-founded AsialInfo Holdings, Inc. in 1993. He is now director of the board of AsialInfo Inc. He has also served as an independent director of Baidu, a NASDAQ-listed company from August 2005; an independent director of Huayi Brothers Media Corporation, ChiNext Shenzhen-listed company from March, 2011. James Ding graduated from Peking University in 1986. He earned his master’s degree in information science from UCLA in 1990.

Cindy Fan 范芝芬
Vice Provost for International Studies and Global Engagement
Professor of Geography, UCLA
Dr. Fan is responsible for UCLA’s global strategy, international partnerships and global engagement. She also oversees the International Institute that comprises more than 25 interdisciplinary research centers and degree programs. Dr. Fan received her B.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. from respectively the University of Hong Kong, Chinese University of Hong Kong and Ohio State University. Her book China on the Move is a pioneering study of rural-urban migration and split households in China. Dr. Fan is a recipient of numerous awards including the UCLA Distinguished Teaching Award and she regularly contributes to the New York Times and other media outlets.

Alexander Tiger Miller 米格
Founder - Fortune Hero Media
Mr. Miller is a Chinese-American film producer/director and television show-runner, fluent in English, Mandarin and Japanese. His production experience in Hollywood and China has enabled him to specialize in co-production settings. He is currently producing an action-thriller feature film titled Live Die Race, as well as the first episodes of Sesame Street in China. Mr. Miller received a B.A. in International Development Studies from UCLA.

Wang Jianzhou 王建宙
Chairman, China Association for Public Companies
Wang Jianzhou is the former chairman of China Mobile. He is currently the chairman of China Association for Public Companies. In 2004, Dr. Wang joined China Mobile as the chairman and CEO. He has been instrumental in steering the company to become the leading mobile service provider in China. With the world’s largest mobile network and mobile subscriber base the company won popular recognition and acclaim both at home and abroad. Prior to joining China Mobile, Dr. Wang was chairman and CEO of China Unicom. He received a master’s in engineering from Zhejiang University and a doctorate in business administration from Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Zunyou Wu 吴尊友
Director, National Center for AIDS/STD Control & Prevention, China CDC
Zunyou Wu is the director of the National Center for AIDS/STD Control and Prevention, China CDC and an adjunct professor of epidemiology at UCLA. He is a leader in the field of HIV prevention strategies and oversees overall technical implementation of detection, prevention and treatment of HIV/AIDS in China. He has published over 360 academic papers, 196 of which are international journals, including The Lancet. Dr. Wu has received many honors including the 2005 International Rolleston Award for implementing harm reduction in China, “Hall of Fame” of 2006 UCLA School of Public Health’s Alumni, and the UNAIDS Gold Medal in 2008.